IMMEDIATE MOTORWAY ACCESS

The estate is located in Heywood, approximately 7.5 miles north of Manchester city centre, at the heart of one of the region's most established industrial and logistics locations. It is uniquely served by the trio of motorways, the M60, M62 and M66, placing it at the interchange of Greater Manchester's primary distribution routes.

Broadfield Business Park benefits from being just 1.9 miles from Junction 3 of the M66 and only 4 miles from the M60/M62 interchange, providing direct, efficient access across the North West and to the national motorway network. The estate is an ideal base for businesses seeking seamless transport links.
